Safety Coordinator Position

Wanted! TWU Base Safety has an opening for a Safety Coordinator. Someone who has a passion for safety and is interested in working with the Tulsa Base Safety group. This is a full-time position and duties will include, but are not limited to: accident reviews; safety walks; being a liaison between TWU and management; lead monthly safety meetings; give safety report-outs at the TWU hall; attend Joint Safety Council meetings; and become familiar with local, state, and federal safety regulations. The Coordinator will be a resource to shop/dock safety teams; provide safety support to the members on the floor; and will provide some training. This position will be filled by the most qualified individual who will be determined through an interview process. This job is fast-paced, busy, and requires self-motivated, energetic individuals. Experience in Safety is not required but is helpful. Communication and people skills are a must, and clerical skills will be helpful.

Send a resume to aurora.sommer@aa.com or hand deliver to TWU safety office upstairs in Hangar 3&4 (C-10). Contact any of the Safety Coordinators if you have any questions. Applications will be accepted until January 31, 2012. (Aurora Sommer - TWU Tulsa Base Safety)

Read below for more information and FAQs on the scholarship.

Since 1969, TWU has been awarding 15 four-year college scholarships annually to the dependents of TWU members. The awards are worth $1,200 each annually, for a total of $4,800 over the four year college period.

Winners of the scholarship are determined by a public drawing held each May at TWU Headquarters.

Michael J Quill Scholarships

The benefits of the first 30 drawings have been enjoyed by families throughout the Union. Sons and daughters of members in city passenger transit, railroad and air transportation, utilities, public employment, space installations, and allied industries are among those who began their college education with the help of funds paid to the universities.

The scholarship money is paid directly to the college or university that the successful applicant actually attends. Applications can be secured online and from the first issue of the TWU Express each year.

The Quill Scholarship Program is supervised by International Executive Vice President Harry Lombardo with the able assistance of Executive Secretary to the International Vice President & Secretary-Treasurer Tinisha Thompson.
