Bankruptcy Information

Information about the bankruptcy comes almost everyday for hearings, etc.

The Informer only goes out weekly. However, for the most current information, we recommend that you use your computer at home or at work and visit www.twu514.org to see up to the minute updates, which is the fastest and most reliable way to be informed.

You can also sign up for updates at www.twu.org, the TWU International's website.

Help for Job Seekers

The Tulsa City County Library System has many free resources that may help those being laid off. Of course there are many kinds of books that can help make resumes or explore new careers, but they also have online resources where one can learn computer skills (Learning Express) or have a resume professionally proof-read (Job Now). They also offer regular Job Labs at three locations.

JOB LAB is an open computer lab just for job seekers and library staff is available to help. The current schedule for Job Lab is:

Central Library, Computer Training Room

400 Civic Center, Tulsa, Oklahoma

Thursdays, Nov 8 and Dec 13, 2:00 PM until 3:30 PM

Mondays, Oct 22 and Nov 26, 2:00 PM until 3:30 PM

Rudisill Regional Library, Computer Lab

1520 North Hartford Avenue, Tulsa, Oklahoma

Offers one-to-one assistance. Please register by calling (918) 549-7645

Tuesdays, Oct 23 and Nov 27, 1:00 PM until 3:00 PM

Martin Regional Library, Computer Lab

2601 South Garnett Road, Tulsa, Oklahoma

Every Monday (excluding holidays), 9 AM until 11 AM

All Tulsa City County Libraries have free access or wireless (Wi-Fi) connection. They offer computer skills classes at several libraries, as well. Check out their event guide at <http://www.tulsalibrary.org/eventguide/> for the schedule.

JOB NOW is a very useful online tool for resume proof-reading and live career coaching and interview practice. Access it directly at <http://tulsalibrary.org/jobhelp>.

The library has many more great online resources for job seekers. Most are listed in the career guide at <http://guides.tulsalibrary.org/career>
