Re: International Staff Changes Effective June 7, 2010

As we continue to refine Officers and Staff assignments to better adapt to the current and future demands placed on the organization, the following changes have become necessary:

International Administrative Vice President Susan Resch:

In addition to her duties on the International Administrative Committee, Sister Resch will oversee (but not limited to) Education and Applied Research; External Transit assignments and affiliation coordination, assist on International Policy and Procedures. Sister Resch is vacating her current position as Transit Division Director.

International Administrative Vice President John M. Conley:

In addition to his duties on the International Administrative Committee, Brother Conley will oversee (but not limited to) International Policy and Procedures, OPEIU, Internal TWU HR issues, collaboration with all external affiliations on aviation related matters in coordination with the Division Director. Brother Conley is vacating his position as Air Transport Division Director.

Airline Division:

International Vice President Garry Drummond:

Brother Drummond will take over the role and responsibilities as Air Transport Division Director with special emphasis on the internal administration of the Airline Division.

Transit, Universities and Utility Division:

International Representative Carl Martin:

Brother Martin will take over the roles and responsibilities as Transit, University and Utility Division Director.
