TWU-IAM Association Fleet Service Negotiating Committee Update

Brothers and sisters,

Your Fleet Service Association Negotiating Committee met this week in Dallas to continue writing and reconciling contract language.

We are closely examining every article and section of the agreements. As anticipated, this is a challenging process but we are united in our efforts to ensure an industry leading contract for all TWU-IAM Association members at American Airlines.

As we await the Company's initial proposals, all Negotiating Committees will meet again the week of September 28th in Chicago. All members will be advised of future scheduled meetings.

We thank all members for their patience and continued solidarity.

In solidarity,

Mark Baskett
